Program Description

We are glad you are interested in joining the Leadership Crucible. During this year-long program, participants will participate in a series of workshops given on the first and third Saturday of the month (September through November and February through April). These workshops will focus on:

- helping participants see themselves as leaders
- developing leadership skills
- reinforcing the qualities of effective leaders (e.g., honest, inspiring, courageous)
- building strategies to mitigate the unique problems faced by women leaders in South Sudan
- helping participants identify mentors and begin to build professional networks

The program also includes a mentoring component through which each participant is assigned a mentor to advise and help them. In addition, Leadership Crucible graduates will be eligible to participate in on-going programs after they graduate.

The program is free. The program is also competitive. Only women with a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher should apply.

Interested women are required to submit an application (attached). Finalists will be invited to an interview. We plan to accept approximately 20 students for the next academic year.

12. Personal Declarations

I declare that the information provided in this application is accurate, and the attached documents are authentic. I further declare that the attached essays were written by me.

I also understand this program is intensive and requires a significant commitment. I understand that all selected applicants will be required to sign a contract agreeing to prepare for each workshop, do all the assignments, and actively participate in all activities.

Finally, I understand that all participants are expected to adhere to the School's core values:

School of Public Service - Core Values

- Excellence. We are committed to providing an excellent education to our students.
- Service. We are committed to serving the people of South Sudan; their well-being is our top priority.
- Integrity. We honor our country, communities, families, and selves by adhering to the highest standards of conduct. We endeavor to do what is right, even when no one is watching.
- Knowledge and Know-How. Our programs integrate theory and practice, with a heavy emphasis on applied exercises.
- Teamwork. We find strength in diversity, and unity in a shared commitment to build the nation; we do not let tribal, regional, or political differences become divisive. We also collaborate and help each other succeed.
- Hard Work. We work hard every day striving to achieve our personal goals and the goals of the School.
- Respect. We value staff and student contributions to our mission and treat each other with courtesy and respect.
- Accountability. We take responsibility for our actions; learn from our mistakes; and celebrate our achievements.
- Problem-Solving. We expect staff and students to take initiative and solve problems; and we empower them to do so.
- Courage. We have the courage to live our values and to act in the face of adversity and resistance.
